

I think the FCC should let XM handle local news and weather. HAs long has xm stays a paid service. i see nothing wrong giving local FM stations a little challenge. This is the big fish worried what might happen that more of the pie they owned is going to someone else.